

“Today’s Fresh Move of God” & “Relational Discipleship: Why Small Groups?” Leadership Group Guide - April 2023

We’re in the midst of revival and must disciple the harvest God brings us. Pastor Norman’s recent blog, “Today’s Fresh Move of God” provides insight on the last great revival and how we should respond to the revival we are experiencing. His “Lead Sheet”, “Relational Discipleship: Why Small Groups?” reminds us why our groups are important now more than ever.

The blog and Lead Sheet are provided below. Please read and take notes before attending your Leadership Group. Be ready to discuss.

Discussion Questions & Application (45 minutes):

1. What stands out to you from Pastor Norman’s blog “Today’s Fresh Move of God?” How do you need to respond as a leader?
2. In light of Pastor Norman’s Lead Sheet, “Relational Discipleship: Why Small Groups?”, what adjustments could be made to ready your group for revival?

Prayer Points (15 minutes):

1. Is anyone in your group experiencing revival in their family, workplace, campus, etc.? Pray together for the revival happening and for support.
2. Pray for revival around the world as every Christian commits to sharing the Gospel and making disciples.
3. Pray that our groups would experience a harvest of new people to lead to Christ and disciple.

Discipleship Classes | pearlside.org/classes

Pearlside Church is determined to help train and develop you to make disciples. If you or anyone you know in your group hasn't attended any of our classes in the last year, we encourage you to register and attend our upcoming classes. Check our website or the App for our class schedules at our different congregations.

- Growth Track
- Discipleship Track
- Freedom Weekend

God has been adding to our congregation weekly in our services and small groups. With this in mind, we are asking that you remind and encourage all group members to be warm connectors at services. If they are new to you they are new. Take time to be relational connectors at services.
