

Living Beyond Our Borders

Final part of the series, "Beyond: Living Beyond Ourselves"

Sunday, November 27, 2022 | Pastor Alfredo Canencia, Jr.

Acts 1:1-9 NIV

Christians should live with a heart of thanksgiving for the gospel.

Gratitude should motivate us to go beyond our borders.

*"But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."
(Acts 1:8 NIV)*

To do this, we must be EQUIPPED and sent.

*"How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: 'How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!'"
(Romans 10:14-15 NIV)*

All of us can GO and all of us can SOW beyond our borders.

"Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. ⁷Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work... ¹⁰Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness. ¹¹You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God. ¹²This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of the Lord's people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God. ¹³Because of the service by which you have proved yourselves, others will praise God for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else." (2 Corinthians 9:6-13 NIV)

Just as Jesus went above and beyond for us, we must do the same for others.

"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another." (John 13:34 ESV)
