Ecclesiastes 3:1-17 NLT

God has set seasons and times for everything.

"For everything there is a season, a time for every activity under heaven." (v. 1)

God's beauty will be seen in His time.

"...God has made everything beautiful for its own time..." (v. 11)

God desires that we see and live life with an eternal perspective.

"...He has planted eternity in the human heart, but even so, people cannot see the whole scope of God's work from beginning to end. ¹²So I concluded there is nothing better than to be happy and enjoy ourselves as long as we can. ¹³And people should eat and drink and enjoy the fruits of their labor, for these are gifts from God. ¹⁴And I know that whatever God does is final. Nothing can be added to it or taken from it..." (v. 11-14)

God has set a time when we will give account for our time on earth.

"...God's purpose is that people should fear him. ¹⁵What is happening now has happened before, and what will happen in the future has happened before, because God makes the same things happen over and over again... ¹⁷I said to myself, 'In due season God will judge everyone, both good and bad, for all their deeds.'" (v. 14-15, 17)

*"For we must all stand before Christ to be judged. We will each receive whatever we deserve for the good or evil we have done in this earthly body."
(2 Corinthians 5:10 NLT)*

"The Lord says, 'I will rescue those who love me. I will protect those who trust in my name. ¹⁵When they call on me, I will answer; I will be with them in trouble. I will rescue and honor them. ¹⁶I will reward them with a long life and give them my salvation.'" (Psalm 91:14-16 NLT)
