Mark 5:24-34 NLT

The trial.

"A woman in the crowd had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding. She had suffered a great deal from many doctors, and over the years she had spent everything she had to pay them, but she had gotten no better. In fact, she had gotten worse." (v. 25-26)

The touch.

"She had heard about Jesus, so she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his robe. ²⁸For she thought to herself, 'If I can just touch his robe, I will be healed.' ²⁹Immediately the bleeding stopped, and she could feel in her body that she had been healed of her terrible condition." (v. 27-29)

The turnaround.

"Jesus realized at once that healing power had gone out from him, so he turned around in the crowd and asked, 'Who touched my robe?' ³¹His disciples said to him, 'Look at this crowd pressing around you. How can you ask, "Who touched me?"' ³²But he kept on looking around to see who had done it." (v. 30-32)

The testimony.

"Then the frightened woman, trembling at the realization of what had happened to her, came and fell to her knees in front of him and told him what she had done. And he said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace. Your suffering is over.'" (v. 33-34)
